DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "second transformer" must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 2817

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 9, 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is not clear which transformer called "second transformer".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated Belot (6,366,166).

Regarding claims 1, 2, 11, 12, Belot. (Fig. 4) discloses a differential amplifier comprising: a pair of transistors (T1, T2); and inductors ((32, 33) or (34, 36)) can be read as a first transformer, which are arranged to bias the transistors (T1, T2).

Regarding claims 3, 13, wherein the inductors (34, 36) coupled to the output to provide output impedance matching.

Regarding claims 4, 14, wherein Belot circuit also comprises inductors (32, 33), which arranged to provide input impedance matching.

Regarding claims 5, 6, 14, 16, since the reference inductors having similar claimed connections, as such they are capable of having similar claimed functions.

Art Unit: 2817

Regarding claims 7, 17, wherein inductors (32, 33), which earlier read as a first transformer is coupled in series with an emitter/source of each transistor (T1, T2). It is noted that emitter/source is depended on the type of transistor used. Applicant also stated on page 5, line 25-28, the differential amplifier can be either FETs or BJTs.

Regarding claims 8, 18, wherein the transformer is coupled in series with the collectors/(first terminal) of transistors (T1, T2).

Regarding claims 9, 19, wherein inductors (32, 33) can be read as a second transformer coupled in series with an emitter/(second terminal) of each transistor (T1, T2).

Regarding claims 10, 20, wherein inductors ((32, 33) and (34, 36)) having similar connections and provide input impedance matching and output impedance matching, respectively as well as noise control.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The additional references (Davis (5,343,162); Didier (6,023,192); Imbornone et al. (6,342,813)) show further analogous prior art circuitry.

These arts are deemed relevant and should be carefully reviews before any amendment is filed.
